RG 3: Arlington Hall, Collected Materials, 1929-1993 (31 records)

Arlington Hall was an operating junior college and high school from 1927 to 1942, later an Army station, and National Foreign Affairs Training Center. This collection covers the history of the Arlington Hall Junior College, with materials published between 1928 and 1993. Most of the materials came from alumnae and are in the form of yearbooks, newsletters, college catalogs, scrapbooks, photographs, and assorted ephemera, reflecting the use of Arlington Hall as a college. The rest of the material has been gathered from various sources over time, and reflects later uses of the property.
